ARE YOU AVAILABLE ON WEDNESDAYS?

The central office of the Chicago Dental Society receives many calls from people who have difficulty in locating a dentist for emergency treatment on Wednesdays. CHICAGO ACADEMY OF DENTAL RESEARCH WILL PRESENT TWO-DAY SEMINAR

Dr. Philip Green, president of the Chicago Academy of Dental Research, announces a two-day seminar on Periodontal Therapy under the direction of Dr. Saul S. Schluger of Jersey City, N. J. The program will be given on Saturday and Sunday, February 1 and 2, 1958, just preceding the Midwinter Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society.

Dr. Schluger is considered one of the foremost periodontists in the country and the originator of the muco-buccal fold resection in periodontics. He is professor of periodontia at Columbia University Postgraduate Dental School and co-author of Periodontal Therapy with Drs. Henry Goldman and Lewis Fox.

Members of the Academy and their guests are invited.

SERIOUS PENICILLIN REACTIONS ARE INCREASING

Reporting on a nationwide survey of more than four years, a Food and Drug Administration physician told the Fifth Annual Symposium on Antibiotics that the number of serious reactions to penicillin has been increasing annually. Dr. Henry Welch, chief of the FDA division of antibiotics, made the report.

Since 1945, Dr. Welch said, isolated reports of penicillin reactions with a relatively high percentage of fatalities have been appearing in medical literature. The survey, covering the principal antibiotics, showed a substantially higher number of reactions to penicillin than to other antibiotics.

In the survey, 3,419 case histories of severe reactions were classified, but 424 were excluded because of insufficient data. One-third of the reported reactions to all antibiotics were classified as life-threatening and about nine-tenths of the reactions were attributed to penicillin.

"The trend of increase in serious reactions, especially from penicillin given by intramuscular injection," the FDA says, "shows there should be a clear-cut indication of need before the drug is administered. The study of case histories indicates that there has not been indiscriminate use of penicillin by physicians." At one point Dr. Welch points out that the number of reactions to penicillin is still small when considering that millions of persons receive it each year and that it has saved tens of thousands of lives. He said the increased incidence of reactions is to be expected in the wise use of a highly antigenic substance.

RELIEF CAMPAIGN BEGINS

The Annual Relief Fund Campaign of the American Dental Association began on October 16th when Relief Fund seals were mailed to all ADA members.

The goal is again set at $100,000, a sum that has been exceeded in each of the five previous campaigns. The quota for the state of Illinois is again $6,830. In the last campaign we contributed 125.1% of this amount or $8,679.25.

Contributions for 1956-57 were $128,363, the highest in the campaign's history. Forty-six constituent societies and the federal dental services reached or exceeded their respective quotas. Only nine societies failed to reach their goal.

With the help of all another record can be set for the coming year. The Relief Fund is a matter of concern for all dentists. It provides the means whereby members of the profession unite to help those in need. It needs and deserves the generous support of every dentist in the nation.

Every dollar of every contribution goes for relief purposes. Full costs of administration of the fund and of the fund-raising drive are assumed by the American Dental Association. One-half of all contributions from our members will be returned to the Relief Fund of the Illinois State Dental Society.

John W. Seaborg, President of the Englewood Branch of the Chicago Dental Society, was born and educated in Chicago. He was graduated from Northwestern University in 1913 and his dental fraternity was Delta Sigma Delta.

He has served his branch and the parent society in various capacities, including that of presiding chairman during a past Midwinter Meeting.

Dr. Seaborg was recently honored by the American Dental Association with a life membership. His next ambition is to become a fifty-year member of his graduating class.

Kenwood

Graham O. Davies, Kenwood-Hyde Park President, was graduated from Loyola University School of Dentistry in 1946. He limits his practice to oral surgery, having received his M.S.D. degree from Northwestern University in 1954. From 1946-1948 he served with the United States Air Force.

Dr. Davies has long been active in dental affairs, having held all the offices of his Branch prior to his election to the presidency. He is Program Chairman of the Chicago Dental Society's 1958 Midwinter Meeting.

He is a member of the Chicago Society of Oral Surgeons, the Odontographic Society, Delta Sigma Delta and Delta Tau Delta.

Registration Committee for the 1958 Midwinter Meeting of the Chicago Dental Society and is a member of the Clinic Committee of the Illinois State Dental Society.

Dr. Duxler is a Colonel D.C. Retired (USAR). A Word From Waska

Wittle Wo weporting. We (editorial) are flattered all to heck by all this fuss about what happened to us, but the situation has reached such grave proportions that we feel it our solemn duty to speak up. Karl Richardson is worried sick about the terrible drop-off in membership. Not a day passes, he sez, but what a couple of guys want "out" 'cuz we are no longer writing. Why would you believe it, even "A Member" has stopped hollerin' like anythin' every time a issue of THE FORTNIGHTLY hits the stands! The exodus must be stemmed! Well we want to tell the gang that one story has it that I mysteriously disappeared within minutes after finishing my second limited attendance clinic at the 1956 Springfield meeting. Another tale deals with an ovarian cyst, and even "tired blood" has been blamed. Still another version credits me with having been felled by a guided missile (the Battleaxe throws the book at me on occasion) and, too, that at the most crucial moment—my deodorant failed! Truth of the matter is I just plain went and overdone it tryin' to figure out where the yellow went when I applied the process of ablution to the clinical crowns of my maxillary and mandibular masticatory appendages with you-know-what. And although I have been confined to bed for the past seventeen months I must say that I'm glad I'm sick. I'd hate to feel like this if I was well. Otherwise the scene here is one of utter domestic bliss. The Ball-and-chain whomped up parts of a old dead chicken for dinner and I did just fine until she asked me if I wanted more corn. "Yup," sez I, holdin' up my glass, "don't mind if I do." Gotta look up that horse liniment in a minute, Joe (pronounced DJAUGHE) is supposed to be studying his spelling and punktuashun (of course, I can help him a good deel there), but he has Captain Flint, his parakeet, perched on his finger and the two are going over today's cuss words. Flint is not paying attention, however, and is only hollerin' something about "more birdseed!" He's a Waska, too, you know. The War Department is sprawled out in the red leather chair munching Miltowns and thumbin' through vol. 25 of the Brittanica brushin' up on the 15th century torture methods in preparation for a busy tomorrow. And me? I'm over here just a-settin' and a-thinkin'. Thinkin' about t'other nite when Vince and Les Kalk brought Elderly Grandparent (of the male persuasion) along with them, and how about I enjoyed the visit. Your account of the summer in Europe and especially the ocean voyage relly moved me. Moved me two feet and four inches which, in my condition, is something. Moved me 'way over to a spot marked "write all pomes here." Keep it close to your vest 'cuz Richard Aldington (editor of the Viking Book of Poetry) is after it. I wonder why he wouldn't put that box of matches down? Anyhoo, here it is:

A OWED TO VINCE MILAS

You sang to me of your life at sea
Of the warmth of the sun at noon
You sang to me of delights that be 'Neath the summer ocean moon
But your silver song didn't ring the gong
'Twas to me an empty tune
'Cuz I can't (I confide) buy a rowboat ride
On the Lincoln Park lagoon.

Golly, boys, I gotta go, real quick-like —here comes the guy again with his box of matches!

NEWS OF THE BRANCHES

North Suburban

If the attendance and program of our first dinner meeting can be taken as a guide, this will be an outstanding year for the North Suburban Branch. Dinner Chairman, Cliff Mergener, far exceeded his expectations, and has already sold 141 dinner tickets. In fact, Cliff had trouble finding a seat in the capacity filled dining room at the Georgian, where we were served a delicious roast beef dinner. It is hard to tell if the record turnout was due to Cliff's good work, Jim Lynch's outstanding program, or the newly re-established social hour that preceded dinner. In any event, it was a fine combination. Prexy Ed Sullivan promises that all of the meals will be as good as the first. . . . Program chairman, Jim Lynch, kept his promise for top programs in presenting Dr. John Borden of Washington, D. C. John showed the need and requirements for super-speed dentistry, and demonstrated the uses of the Airtor handpiece. If one wasn't enthused, one couldn't help but be impressed by this new addition and its implications. . . . The next dinner meeting will be the annual clinic day at Great Lakes Naval Training Station. We are again fortunate to be granted the use of the naval facilities which have provided us top programs and entertainment in the past. S. Charles Brecker of New York will be the clinician, and his topic will be "A Complete Dental Service." There has been a conflict with the meeting date, so get out those old scratched-up calendars. The meeting will be held on TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3rd, not the 4th as printed on the dinner tickets. . . . The Evanston Association of Dentists held its annual golf outing at Glenview Naval Air Station on Sept. 25th. Art Freeman came in with low gross, and Cliff Mergener won low net honors. It was a beautiful day, but your reporter was unable to attend due to a conflicting engagement with the mumps.

. . . The boys are back from Europe with many a tale of pleasant memories and newly-acquired poverty. T. Sherman Johnston reports seeing the Chuck Merciers and Adrian Swansons Christmas shopping in Venice. Sherman and spouse took a 2½-week trip that allowed them to see some of Switzerland and Paris before the meeting in Rome. They visited with the Dean of the dental college in Florence, visited the main college in Paris, and saw several dental offices in Italy. . . . Others who were seen at the Rome meeting were Jim Best, Bob Wing, George Balbach, Bob Kent, and Hal Chason. Hal reports a good trip, but he was disappointed with the Follies in Paris (wonder what he was expecting?). . . . We close with a reminder that you can still save money by purchasing a dinner ticket instead of paying single admissions. . . . George Kearns will pick up all the scandal at the Miami meeting and will report next month.

All CDS members urgently are requested to inform the Central Office of the names and addresses of any persons whom you know to have received dental services in dental laboratories or in the homes of dental technicians. Give us also as much detail as you can of what was done, when it was done, and who did it. Do not scare such persons by asking them if they are willing to testify. We will take care of that and other details. Just give us the information asked above. Your name will be held in strict confidence at all times.—R. G. Fischl, Branch Correspondent.

Englewood

The stellar attraction of essayist Lester Boyd and the advance publicity on Nielsen's new Pump Room attracted a good house for our meeting of October 8th. Program Chairman Al Jason will present Dr. Paul S. Rhoades, Professor of Internal Medicine, Northwestern University, at the November meeting on Tuesday, the 12th, his subject, "Present Concepts of Focal Infection." Our members should find this subject educational and of every day interest. . . . Headin' to Miami and the ADA meeting for sun(?) and fun are John Lace, Tom Starshak and Ted Vermeulen; goin' down to work are Delegates Paul Kanchier and Vince Milas—Alternates Ernie Goldhorn and Gus Solfronk. . . . Les and Mrs. Kalk are visiting her folks in Vassar, Mich. . . . Bill Shippee has oiled up his artillery and is shooting up the North Woods to replenish his freezer, neighbors Ed Werre and Paul Kanchier are making room in theirs, and Joe Jun stocked his full of fish from his trip to Minnesota. . . . Tom Starshak is breathing easier after completing that task of moving both his office and home to the South Shore, his new office location is 2376 East 71st St., Suite 509. . . . Sorry to report two unfortunate accidents the past summer—Bruce Spooner's son had an arrow accidentally shot into his eye and Ed Werre's son similarly received a dart in his eye—both are reported on the mend. . . . Lew Weil is spending some of his spare(?) time at the Mandel Clinic, Michael Reese Hospital. . . . Guest at our meeting was Mr. Fred Bolinger—Ralph Odes also came out for this one, he'll be a regular now—Mal Brooks brought out some pictures of his grandchild but his best audience, Lou Horvitz, didn't show up. . . . It is my sad duty to report the death of Branch member W. G. Murphy. To his two daughters who survive him we extend our sincere sympathy. . . . Our condolences to Ed Serr on the loss of his father who was buried in Scotland, South Dakota. . . . I understand Hank Henderson spent several weeks in the hospital, a speedy recovery, Hank. . . . While writing this column in a reclining position in an atmosphere thick with flu germs I received a letter from another reclining figure, a word from whom is published elsewhere in this issue, who complains the lack of reading material has forced him to read his wife's magazines which has made him dream that he attended an Englewood meeting dressed in nothing but a "Formfit."

All CDS members urgently are requested to inform the Central Office of the names and addresses of any persons whom you know to have received dental services in dental laboratories or in the homes of dental technicians. Give us also as much detail as you can of what was done, when it was done, and who did it. Do not scare such persons by asking them if they are willing to testify. We will take care of that and other details. Just give us the information asked above. Your name will be held in strict confidence at all times. — Vincent B. Milas, Assistant Branch Correspondent.

West Suburban

By this issue the big Schlitzfest in Milwaukee is just a memory and the pigskin parade is now in full swing. Busy West Suburbanites Gresens, Brett, Kunchl, and Dunnom, found time to travel up to Blatztown to take a gander at the fifth game of the World's Series. They also managed a get-together at the Hotel Schroeder for a post-game hassle. . . . We saw a number of the West Suburban crowd at the Northside Workshop at Tam O'Shanter. The WS members of the Sanders Club were there with the exception of Fred Macaluso, who is still hiding under the pizza somewhere in Europe. Barney Mulacek was there, too, and for those of us who like to talk diet for both health and caries control, Barney is a good listener and contributor. He says that the cook at his house doesn't like the pink potatoes which result from the use of trace mineral salt. Pretty fancy, pink potatoes. . . . One of the members just returned from a delightful overseas jaunt is Ione Kral. Back from a five-week trip to the continent, Ione recalls with much pleasure the flight from New York to Lisbon, time spent in romantic Spain and Portugal, the hop to Rome for the Convention, and following the meeting, travel to Germany, Austria, and Switzerland, and then Paris and the return to the States from London. In Rome, she ran into the Paul Swansons and the Maury Masslers, the meeting with the latter was at the Opera, and also met a classmate from Phoenix. Mark Watanabe, who is associated with Ione, will be at the Miami meeting. . . . We understand that our boys, Budill and Cotter, will be active in the Oral Surgery section of the A.D.A. meeting in Florida. . . . Speaking of the Sun Country, we hear that Ray Olson will be leaving us for Ft. Lauderdale and we wish him the best from the branch. . . . To those members that have had the flu, we say welcome back, and those with it now, just take it easy, your patients either have it too or will wait for you. . . . In this same vein, we hope that George Welk is back making champagne music in his office after a sprained back, and that Mrs. John Frymark has only a tiny scar to recall her recent appendectomy. Quentin Mangion is still having a rough go of it in Oak Park Hospital. . . . At the last branch meeting we got a big boot out of Harvey Lancaster's recollections of dentistry at the turn of the century. Still a great dentist, he must make Bill really proud to be his son and follow dad in this great profession. . . . In news gathering we have found many warm and understanding members who appreciate the needs of your newshawk, you know news. A big vote of thanks to Ed Kritzke for his news items. Thanks, Ed. . . . We understand that George M. Chott, who was in the Armed Forces in France for the past two years, just returned and was appointed to the North Memorial Clinic in the Central-Stickney Public Health District Board. . . . Frank Barta was appointed Chairman of the Berwyn School Dental Health Program by the President of the Berwyn Board of Health. . . . The Far West Study Club had Gustav W. Rapp on Oct. 24 and his fine program titled "New Drugs, Nostalgia, and Nonsense" was well received. All who were there appreciated getting the answers to What the Public Thinks the Ads Say, What the Ads Actually Say, and What the Product in the Ad Actually Does. . . . Will take our wings now and fly south to gather news from the Miami meeting. At this writing it is a "guess who," for your next column.

Northwest Side

The first meeting of the year was one of the best. The food was excellent and the attendance was above average. Dr. Casey's discussion on Oral Surgery was well received and elicited a good deal of discussion. After listening to this talk very few of our members will hesitate to do a tracheotomy in the event that a patient should have difficulty in breathing. The business meeting was well attended; the committees gave their reports. Ben Davidson reported the doings of the Board of Directors. Ben Gillmeister resigned the office of President-Elect because of ill health. We regret that after working up to such a high office he will be unable to serve. . . . Harry E. Matzkin is confined at home with a broken leg. . . . Ben and Mrs. Legator vacationed at Elkhart Lake, Wis. . . . Rudy Basile is building a new home in Park Ridge. . . . Our December meeting will feature "Full and Partial Dentures" by Dr. Dale Lipe. . . . Fred Ahlers is living at 1010 N.W. 30th Ct., Miami 35, Fla. He would like to hear from his friends in the Chicago area. . . . J. J. Applebaum attended a two-week postgraduate course on porcelain jacket crowns at the University of Illinois. . . . The Academy of General Dentistry held a one-day seminar at the University of Illinois on radiology and exodontia. The following Northwest Siders were in attendance: Jim Mershimer, J. J. Applebaum, Max Bramer, S. A. Broniarczyk, Ted V. and Victor T. Weclaw, and J. Kolodziejczyk. . . . The Academy of Dental Psychosomatics will hold an all-day workshop on Dental Hypnosis at the Belden Stratford Hotel sometime next month—check announcements in THE FORTNIGHTLY if you want to attend. . . . Sorry to learn of the death of Adam Olechowski. His son, Ted, was one of the stalwarts of the Northwest Side Branch; he is now a Lt. Col. in the services of Uncle Sam. . . . I'm going to the meeting of the Southern Society of Orthodontists and the A.D.A. meeting in Miami. Lee Schwartz will take over the column while I'm away. Phone him at SPaulding 2-8282.

All CDS members urgently are requested to inform the Central Office of the names and addresses of any persons whom you know to have received dental services in dental laboratories or in the homes of dental technicians. North Side

Alert members may note a slight age to some of the correspondent's written utterances but it should be made clear that all FORTNIGHTLY editors have a deadline of over two weeks prior to press time—also some material is carried forward due to the two-column limit imposed on accepted copy. . . . Another Workshop postgrad seminar is completed. Dr. Louis Alexander Cohen was superb and the North Side can well feel complimented for a feat that only our branch, through diligent and conscientious effort, has been able to perform successfully and with benefit to all. The attendance was 125 and among the many noted practitioners were over 20 from Cleveland, St. Louis, and Detroit. I am sorry—ashamed is a better term—for the many local men who should have been present, but weren't. . . . The October N.S. meeting was well attended with 70 for dinner and approximately 100 for the evening clinician. Do you remember, not so many years back, when the average homey north side meeting was composed of 3 or 4 tables for dinner? . . . Reminder to current Workshop members—a free evening with Melvin Page on the 19th of November for you and the missus. . . . Reminder to ALL—North Side Clinic Day at Edgewater Beach Hotel all day of Wednesday, November 20th. The commercial exhibits, the professional table clinics and the main clinicians will be, as is usual with our branch, the most outstanding and worthwhile. Check ad, this copy, for details. Mark your appointment book, NOW. . . . Now—local news. Joseph Gomberg, in his original office on Bryn Mawr since '42, has moved to a newly built air-conditioned office on Peterson. Bob Margolis has transferred his practice from the Sovereign Hotel to the North Shore Bank Building. Best luck to both of you. . . . Joe Gordon, who was desperately in need of a rest, took a flying trip to California with Dot and the kids to visit in-laws and absorb a few weeks of pleasant though smoggy air. Joe operates offices in Chicago and Winnetka and now, after but a short period back, he is desperately in need of a rest once again. . . . Chicago Academy of Dental Psychosomatics, whose secretary is our Bob Margolis, is having a workshop on Nov. 27 at the Belden Stratford. Other members on this committee are Stan Buckner, Geo. Haberman and Morry Gerry. . . . Dayton "Red" Berk, now of L.A. on the fabulous West Coast, was in town for a few days to get married (no comment). 'Tis gossip that his newly acquired wife has egged him (don't know what it means, but it was so quoted to me) to transfer his periodontia practice to the San Francisco area. Oh, well. . . . Pat Parkin has finally verified the truck jinx on the family car. This time it was a bottling truck at high speed that rammed the rear end of the by now tired auto for damage estimated at $700. Final note—Henry Parkin is now the proud owner of a new sun-glow yellow Lincoln Landau Premier. I especially wish him luck. . . . Ran into Howard Adilman, with his charming wife and baby, inspecting $70,000 homes in the Northfield area. . . . Bill Semiloff takes more darn vacations. This time he and Shirley peddled the kids off to the grandfolks and headed out for Wagon Wheels. Actually, when you think of it, he's smart cause most of us work too hard and play too little and too seldom. . . . Kenneth Penhale has once again returned from Ontario, Canada. He's there quite often and me thinks that 'tis time he invited the N.S. correspondent along to see what attracts. . . . Voice of the Press—to whom it may concern: To what good is glory of accomplishments well deserved if the personal respect of co-workers is lost by a dictatorial attitude. Members of a committee can contribute to the success of a venture by working with, not necessarily for, a chairman. Important men can afford to be humble. Nuff said. . . . The Dental Practice Administration Group is holding a one-day seminar on December 4th. Lee D. Levey is chairman and all PBP men are invited to call for particulars. . . . NOTE: There has been many a request from non-members of the Workshop to attend the Melvin Page lecture on the eve of the 19th of November. Due to the success of the seminar project, it has been unanimously decided to allow all D.D.S.'s to join the Workshop for the current membership fee of $5.00 which will allow free attendance for the 19th plus all other privileges of the Workshop. Rube Kadens is in charge of membership—call him. . . . Don't forget Longbeach 1-4117 to forward the news for YOUR column—or the address is in the phone book for your notations of items of interest. It will be greatly appreciated—honest.

All CDS members urgently are requested to inform the Central Office of the names and addresses of any persons whom you know to have received dental services in dental laboratories or in the homes of dental technicians. Give us also as much detail as you can of what was done, when it was done, and who did it. Do not scare such persons by asking them if they are willing to testify. We will take care of that and other details. Just give us the information asked above. Your name will be held in strict confidence at all times.—Henry H. Parkin, Branch Correspondent.

Attention, you all. The next meeting for our gang is to be November 5th at the Elks Club in Blue Island. As of this writing, we do not have a definite program booked as there is an overlapping of dates with the big ADA meeting in Miami and most of the top men available are there in attendance. So mark the date off in your book and be sure to show up ready to be surprised. . . . Our director is in the market for suggestions as how to play winning bridge. During the Northwestern seminar in Wisconsin, Smiley Simon dropped the sum of $10.60 at the bridge table. In lieu of the rep that he has as a bridge player this is a severe blow to his reputation. . . . By now Bill Seidel is back at the office fully recovered from his recent appendectomy. Be sure to tell us all about it, Bill! . . . Also in the recovery department is our old standby, L. T. Rowland. He is now officially retired and is now spending his time clipping coupons. . . . Don Pippert, our thespian, is at it again out in Palos Park. This time he has the lead in Tea House of the August Moon. . . . Harry Lees and Henry Freitag are headed up north Canada-way to do a little bear hunting. This should be a very interesting thing to hear about during the long cold winter months. Speaking of winter months, isn't this the time that the bears go into hibernation? What kind of a hunting trip is this going to be? To those of you who have thought they have been seeing things, don't go and have your eyes examined, it really is

"Hopped-Up" Solutions

AS A side use of the Carpule® ASPIRATOR it is logical to think of expelling a small quantity of the anesthetic solution from a cartridge and drawing in other drugs — narcotics or injectable antibiotics.

At first, this seems like a good idea. But, if the cartridge plunger is depressed more than its own length, the exposed walls of the cartridge may become contaminated so that the solution is contaminated when the plunger is drawn back. One should also always be sure of the sterility — and compatibility and dosage — of the added ingredients.

"Do-It-Yourself" mixtures, therefore, are advisable only in exceptional situations.

JUST SO YOU KNOW . . .

Laconic means "brief," "concise." It is an adjective formed from Laconia, the name of an ancient Greek country of which Lacedaemon or Sparta was the capital. The Lacedonians and Spartans were noted for their pointed and brusque speech.

There is a tradition that Philip of Macedon once sent the following message to the city of Sparta. "If I enter Laconia, I will level Lacedaemon to the ground."

The city fathers sent back the single word "If."

West Side

The West Side Annual Clinic Day Program of October 9th is now a beautiful memory. How time flies. This day will be remembered as a fine day for the West Side. It truly was an educational opportunity with all the wonderful people who gave such splendid clinics and it was a great day to renew acquaintances with dear friends. It's affairs of this nature that do so much to enhance the standard of our profession. Selflessness and real cooperation were evident on the part of such persons as our President, Harold Epstein, Bob Tuck, Lou Holzman, Mike DeRose, the clinicians and all those who took such an active part in making this day a success. It may appear to be so simple but these affairs are made successes by much labor on the part of all involved in their makeup. A very sincere thanks to everyone of these gentlemen. A vote of thanks is also in order to the commercial exhibitors for their contributions to this affair. Their exhibits always are a vital part of such a program and having a representative of their company present during the afternoon is indeed no small gesture of cooperation and friendship. The evening program was well attended and all those on hand were treated to well chosen remarks by our Chicago Dental Society President, Walter Dundon, Vice-president Jim Lynch, Karl Richardson and the speaker of the evening Dr. J. Allison of Loyola University. Dr. Allison spoke on "The Pros and Cons of the Rubber Base Materials." All the clinicians present were introduced to the branch members and were very well received. Leo Cahill and John Reilly were thanked for putting a little spark into the pre-dinner social hour. All in all, everyone had a swell day and evening so let's wait 'til next year and go at it once again. . . . Can't go without a few words about "Sputnik." We'd better get our ham operators to do a little tracking. This thing's got to be watched. Art Tessler and Phil Weintraub are ham operators so keep a sharp ear. . . . See you.

Kenwood-Hyde Park

Our first meeting of the season got off to a most gratifying success. It was successful socially measured by the laughter and the numbers at the dinner table. Academically and psychologically we all received a shot in the arm to serve our patients and ourselves better in practicing our profession. Dr. Dental I.Q. himself, Les Boyd, did a most excellent job in opening our eyes to new horizons and purpose. We thank him again for his contribution. Les Boyd told what to do, now let Peter Christensen tell you how to accomplish some of the necessary attainments in mouth rehabilitation. You don't need an interpreter to understand his explanation of equilibration and the hinge axis. He has a knack of simplifying description of important problems that other clinicians seem to make complex. Remember Nov. 5 at the Sherry. Call Ascher Jacobs, PL 2-5322, the fellow who is doing a wonderful job as dinner chairman, for reservations. . . . Our genial president, Graham Davies, handled his first meeting as President in good style while daddy Clarence Davies proudly watched. Bob Wells gave an inviting description of what's to take place at Miami. Men of action, Walt Dundon and Elmer Ebert, have refrained from speech making. Good natured Jesse Carlton nodded his head also after being introduced. Ascher Jacobs gave an accounting of the last golf outing at Southmoor and asked for more golfers at the '58 meeting there when Isamu Tashiro will handle the chairmanship. Dr. Kresnoff, Associate member, Dr. Shu Wang, Mrs. Binderman (Ben's Best), and Ed Cosack a very welcome prospective new member, were given special acknowledgement by our president. On the call for new business our big-hearted chairman of the Welfare and Visitation Committee, Joe Wiener, asked for a rising ovation for brave Graham who was leaving the ranks of bachelorhood Oct. 5th. For the few minutes that followed, the gathering turned into a bachelor party. . . . Howard Harvey had lunch at the Swedish Club with the following gentlemen: Willard Johnson who is attending a Dental Health Conference at Starved Rock this week, Lawrence Johnson, Johnny McBride, William Hillemeier, Rudy Grieff and Jean Jacobi who will attend the Miami meeting with their spouses. Sid Berg, Ed Giles and Mac McNulty were also enjoying the food there. . . . Our able Program Chairman, Clint Fisher, reminded me to remind you to reserve Tuesday evening, Nov. 5, for the Sherry. Adios.
